The N.C. Department of Labor will certify EnergyUnited Electric Membership Corp. as a participant in the Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Program (SHARP) on Wednesday, Aug. 31.

Labor Commissioner Cherie Berry will present company officials with a certificate and the SHARP flag at a ceremony at the company's headquarters in Statesville.

The Safety and Health Achievement Recognition Program recognizes small to mid-size employers that have developed and maintained effective safety and health programs. There are 165 general industry sites in the program in North Carolina.

EnergyUnited is the largest electric cooperative in the state, providing electric service in 19 counties in North Carolina.
