

EnergyAdvantage

Program Agreement

The EnergyAdvantage Program allows members to monitor their electric usage, manage their account and purchase electricity on a “pay-as-you-go” basis. Enrollment in the EnergyAdvantage Program is voluntary and is available for all residential class locations and small general service locations supporting the residence. Locations must be supported by EnergyUnited’s Advanced Metering Infrastructure (AMI) Technology.

It is important that EnergyUnited has the correct phone number on-file for your account. Phone numbers are used to quickly access account information, report outages via our automated system, notify our members of planned outages, or provide important information concerning your account. By providing your phone number you agree that EnergyUnited may contact you for business purposes, including EnergyAdvantage calls and notifications. You also agree to receive calls by phone or by our automated outbound messaging system as well as text messages via our automated outbound messaging system and normal cell phone charges may apply. You may discontinue receiving outbound messages or opt out of text messages at any time by contacting Customer Care

Please note: If you have entered a cell phone number or another number that is later converted to a cell phone number, you agreed

I understand I am solely responsible for managing my account, maintaining credit balance, and ensuring the alert notification methods are accurate. I understand if the alert information is not correct, important notifications may not be received.

It is recommended that members select and maintain more than one means of notification. Options may include phone, email or text. Outbound call or text message will include notification that may include personal account information (i.e. disconnection date, account number, name, etc.). Please choose the methods of communication below and provide necessary information.
