

SPOT THE HAZARD

Test your safety smarts: circle the hazard that you see in the image. Then discuss with a friend or family member what actions you should take if you see or experience a hazard like this.

ANSWERS

1. Padmount transformer is not securely fixed to the ground and door is left open.
2. Power line is down and people are too close to the live wire.
3. Power lines are touching the treehouse.
4. The man is not using the ladder safely.
5. The man is too close to the power lines and at risk of touching them.
6. People are playing in the street.

Notify EnergyUnited of any electrical dangers that you see.