ENERGYUNITED GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

STATESVILLE, N.C.

On Friday, August 7, 2015, EnergyUnited presented a corporate gift of $3,451.74 to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. This gift will go towards the funding of cancer research through a Light the Night walk team. Light The Night Walks are a powerful and unique fundraising campaign which brings together families and communities to celebrate blood cancer survivors, as well as honor those lost to the disease. Participants at the walks carry illuminated lanterns – white for survivors, red for supporters and gold to remember those who have died. The Charlotte Walk will take place on Saturday, November 7, 2015 at Romare Bearden Park.

“Light the Night Walk gives hope to patients and their families and lets them know they are not alone in their battle against cancer,” said Alyson Willis, Light the Night Campaign Manager for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. “It’s powerful to see the community and companies like EnergyUnited come together and walk to save lives.”

EnergyUnited Propane provides a variety of products and services to over 25,000 customers throughout North and South Carolina. The funds that were collected from propane sales this past year came from a delivery truck that operates in Hendersonville, NC. For every gallon sold through this truck, EnergyUnited donated .01 cent from each gallon of propane, totaling $3,451.74 this past year.
