2018 BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINEES

ANN ELLER

District 1

Eligible for a three-year term

Ann Eller has served on the EnergyUnited Board of Directors since its inception in 1998. Prior to that, Eller had been a member of the Crescent EMC Board since 1988.

In addition to her service to EnergyUnited, Eller, a devoted mother and grandmother, is the owner of a poultry and beef cattle farm located in Moravian Falls, where she has resided for over 50 years.

In addition, Eller has been both a passionate participant in and supporter of various nonprofit social movements that have directly impacted her own life and shaped her philosophy regarding life, including breast cancer awareness and advocacy, which has resulted in far-reaching improvements in cancer care for women. She is also a supporter of St. Jude's Children's Hospital, a hospital pioneering research and treatments for kids with cancer and other life-threatening diseases.

Eller is a graduate of George Washington High School in Danville, Va. She enjoys reading, interior design, spending time with her grandchildren and being out on the farm.

DR. MAX WALSER

District 2

Eligible for a three-year term

Max Walser has served on the EnergyUnited Board of Directors since its inception in 1998 and also serves as president. Prior to that, Walser had been a member of the Davidson EMC board since 1975. Walser also serves as director on the EnergyUnited Services board.

Walser is a retired superintendent of Davidson County Schools who spent 37 years in education. He currently serves on the North Carolina Electric Membership Cooperative board and the North Carolina Association of Electric Cooperatives board. He is a past chairman of the Davidson County Board of Commissioners and was appointed by former Governor Purdue to the North Carolina Economic Development Committee in February 2012. Walser has served on a variety of boards, including the Chamber of Commerce, Piedmont Triad Partnership, Hospice House building fundraising committee, Arts Council, board of trustees for Davidson County Community College, and Trading Path Association. Walser currently serves as chair of the Wilcox Bridge-Fort York County Committee. He is also a past member of several civic organizations.

Walser received his bachelor's degree from Pfeiffer University, two master's degrees from the University of North Carolina and his doctorate degree from Duke University. He and his wife, Peggy, are members of Grace Episcopal Church in Lexington, N.C. In his spare time, Walser enjoys reading and farm work.
